

February 02, 2026 at 0100 am: On the Reaction Sounds Injected Into My Home As I Read News

This is a factual recording of the fact that I have reactionary engine noises being 'revved' into the interior of my home as I read the news about Elon Musk and Donald Trump.

I am witnessing that Donald is now stating that the latest batch of Epstein files actually exonerates him further and clears him completely or some other upside-down bullshit.

This is simply a recording to make note that as I read the news regarding Elon Musk, a very loud and powerful engine revs near my home and as I read about the Department of Justice being unable to investigate or prosecute Donald Trump, another very loud and powerful engine revs again near my home.

These are the antics of the people that are literally holding our world as hostages. Victims of Epstein and Trump, there will not be any 'justice' forthcoming for your pain and suffering from the government of the USA because the government of the USA is literally and truly the perpetrator of the crimes that are being manifested against you. You are rightfully observing that even the best cases of accountability are offset with additional damage to the victims and additional protection for the perverted losers that operate in the shadows of the government.

I am truly saddened to have to continue reporting that we are all facing a literal monster that has no conscience, no remorse, and 'no vulnerabilities' since it is literally being inflated by the American military itself. It just 'keeps going and going and going . . .' as a sad clown grasping to fill an un-fillable void within itself.

World, this is a very real and very sad lesson for everyone as we now see very clearly what happens when the world burrows itself into a sinful mindset that embraces the very types of behavior that have emboldened and enflamed such idiots to become the heads of such important governmental and government-related offices.

Make no mistake about it, political representatives: YOU CREATED THIS MONSTER AND NOW WE, THE PEOPLE OF THEN ENTIRE WORLD, ARE SUFFERING UNDER ITS CRUSHING, DISGUSTING, SHADOW.
